The 2010 WECO Annual Impact Luncheon will celebrate WECO's accomplishments toward advancing the ability of low and moderate income individuals to achieve financial stability and success.

We would be honored to have your attendance and/or sponsorship of our annual luncheon this year. WECO's services are needed more now than ever. We know that you share our concern for those in our community who are struggling. Your support of our event will translate directly into helping those individuals.

Thank you in advance for your consideration and support. We welcome your partnership and look forward to hearing from you soon.
